

Day of Prayer and Fasting, Commencing a Season of Prayer

WHEREAS, Pray Lubbock is commencing a season of prayer for Lubbock citizens to begin Sunday, February 3rd; and,

WHEREAS, County Judge Tom Head and former Mayor Marc McDougal and their respective Court and Council established the tradition of the County of Lubbock to join with the City of Lubbock to request its citizens to join together in prayer for our area; and,

WHEREAS, it is appropriate for citizens in the heritage of American history to unite in prayer with the understanding that a community is stronger when it joins together in earnest prayer to God; and,

WHEREAS, citizens are called to pray for TRUTH to be valued more than personal opinion; and,

WHEREAS, citizens are called to pray for HONOR so we will display appropriate levels of dignified and serious behavior; and,

WHEREAS, citizens are called to pray for JUSTICE so our actions and declarations will be founded in righteousness; and,

WHEREAS, citizens are called to pray for PURITY so our society will desire values over vices, and abstinence over indulgence; and,

WHEREAS, citizens are called to pray for BEAUTY so our people and neighborhoods will be lovely and that our relationships and environment will be friendly; and,

WHEREAS, citizens are called to pray for INTEGRITY so our reputation will be upright and of good report; and,

WHEREAS, citizens are called to pray for EXCELLENCE so our workmanship will be of high-quality and that our life-pursuits will be respectable and first-class; and,

WHEREAS, citizens are called to pray for CREDIBILITY so our community will be admirable and praise-worthy; and,

WHEREAS, Philippians 4:8 asks us to reflect upon these virtues to prevail in our thoughts and to bring transformation in our community,

NOW, THEREFORE we, the Commissioners' Court of Lubbock County, Texas, do hereby proclaim Sunday, February 3, 2008, as a day to enter into a season of prayer and call all citizens to pray for Lubbock to continue and to grow as a community of

Strong Character and Traditional Values

In official recognition whereof, we hereby affix our signatures this 28th day of January 2008.

Tom Head
Lubbock County Judge

Bill McCay
Commissioner, Precinct 1

Ysidro Gutierrez
Commissioner, Precinct 3

Mark Heinrich
Commissioner, Precinct 2

Patti Jones
Commissioner, Precinct 4